Individual programs may have their own terminology for describing a Service User (e.g. Carer, child, young person, Service User, consumer, client, tenant, participant etc.).

Further information about the application of the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) and QPP can be found on the website of the Office of the Information Commissioner Queensland www.oic.qld.gov.au

POLICY

This Privacy Policy explains:

- the nature of the Personal Information we may collect from you;
- how we manage the Personal Information that we collect, use and disclose;
- how to contact us if you:
 - have any questions about our management of your Personal Information; or
 - would like to access or correct the Personal Information we hold about you; or
 - would like to lodge a complaint with us regarding our compliance with Privacy Laws.

THE INFORMATION WE MAY COLLECT

IFYS is a not-for-profit community service organisation, delivering programs and services throughout Queensland in areas including (without limitation):

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------|
| • Accommodation and Housing | • Employment and Training |
| • Child & Family | • Foster and Kinship Care |
| • Child Protection | • Social Enterprises |
| • Disability Support | • Youth |

To provide its services, IFYS engages and coordinates Employees, volunteers and Service Partners. We rely on donations, funding and support from private and public corporations, community groups, various levels of government and from members of the community at large.

The types of Personal Information we may collect include (without limitation):

- identifying information such as name, date of birth, gender and employment details;
- contact information such as home and business addresses, phone numbers, postal addresses and email addresses;
- government-issued identifiers including Tax File Numbers or Medicare numbers, ABNs or ACNs;

- financial information, such as credit card details or bank account details;
- information on personal issues and experiences, relationships, family background and supports Service Users may have in the community and areas of interest;
- qualifications, skills and experience; and
- health information including (without limitation) WorkCover history and/or medical history.

Where possible we collect your Personal and Sensitive Information directly from you. IFYS collects information through various means including telephone and in-person interviews, appointments, forms and questionnaires. If you feel that the information that IFYS is requesting, either on our forms or in our discussions with you, is not information that you wish to provide, please feel free to raise this.

In some situations, IFYS may also obtain Personal Information about you from a third-party source. If information is collected about you in this way, IFYS will take reasonable steps to contact you and ensure that you are aware of the purposes for which the Personal Information was collected and the organisations to which IFYS may disclose your information, subject to any exceptions under the Privacy Laws. For example, IFYS may collect information about you from a healthcare professional, such as (without limitation) your doctor.

If we receive any personal information that is not necessary for us to have, or should not have according to the QPP, we will destroy or deidentify such information. This is regardless of whether the information is provided intentionally or by accident.

We only record information that directly relates to the purpose for collecting it and that we reasonably require to properly carry out our services.

You generally have the right not to identify yourself when dealing with us where it is lawful and practicable for us to allow it. However, on some occasions, we may not be able to do this.

If you do not provide or authorise the provision of the Personal Information we request, we may be unable to provide you with some or all of our services or the services of our Service Partners.

By becoming or remaining a Service User or Service Partner of IFYS, by utilising any of our services or the services of any of our Service Partners sourced through us, or by otherwise providing Personal Information (including Sensitive Information) to us, you confirm that you, and other individuals whose information you provide, have consented to our collecting, using and disclosing your and their Personal Information (including Sensitive Information) however collected by us, in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

HOW WE MAY USE OR SHARE YOUR INFORMATION?

We may use Personal Information in any of the following ways:

- responding to and fulfilling requests for our services;
- endeavouring to ensure that the services we are providing are the most appropriate services to meet relevant needs;
- meeting any requirements of government funding programs;
- monitoring and evaluating existing services and planning for future service needs;
- responding to questions or suggestions;
- retaining information for statistical purposes so that we may improve or better direct our services;
- storing information to save time when dealing with Service Users or with persons authorised to deal with us on a Service User's behalf;
- managing and developing our service and operational processes and systems;
- conducting marketing, feedback and research activities;
- managing and resolving any legal or commercial complaints or issues;

- performing other functions and activities relating to our services and activities;
- responding to applications for employment;
- processing donations and providing receipts; and
- compliance with our legal obligations generally.

In doing so, and for the purposes of this Privacy Policy generally, we may disclose Personal Information to persons or organisations in Australia and overseas including (without limitation):

- our Service Partners involved in managing or providing some of our services. Steps are taken to ensure they comply with the relevant Privacy Laws when they handle Personal Information and that they are authorised only to use Personal Information in order to provide the services required by us;
- our professional advisers, including (without limitation) our lawyers, accountants and auditors;
- former Employers and referees of prospective IFYS Employees, including (without limitation) volunteers;
- doctors and other health care professionals, who assist us in the delivery of our services;
- other government or regulatory bodies, such as WorkSafe or WorkCover;
- your agents and advisers or other persons authorised by, or responsible for you;
- government departments or agencies who provide services or funding for our services;
- other parties to whom we are authorised or required by law to disclose information; and
- in other circumstances with your consent.

Except as set out above, IFYS will not disclose a person's Personal Information to a third-party unless:

- the person has consented to the release; or
- the disclosure is required or authorised by law; or
- to lessen or prevent a serious threat or to locate a missing person; or
- the person would reasonably expect us to use or give that information for a purpose properly related to that for which it was collected.

IFYS does not use AI to manage Personal Information, or in any decision-making process. All AI generated content is reviewed by a human before publication or usage.

WEBSITE

We acknowledge that you may click through to third-party sites from our website. We cannot assume any responsibility for information from and content of third-party sites, including those of our Service Partners. Our Privacy Policy is applicable only to us and our website and accordingly, we recommend that you also refer to the privacy policies of the other sites you visit.

IFYS may use Google advertising programs to improve the online experience including the display of relevant ads on external websites. These programs are pieces of text that are transferred into the memory of your computer to store preferences, record session information and collect information on how you visit and access our website. The use of these programs improves the efficiency of navigation throughout our website and assists us to provide services to you in the most convenient and prompt manner. Anyone can opt out of these programs at any time by clicking here.

How We Secure Your Personal Information

We take all reasonable steps to protect your Personal Information from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. We store your information securely and have a range of security controls in place to ensure that your information and documents are protected. Our Employees receive Privacy awareness training, and access to Personal Information is restricted to appropriately authorised individuals.

We also take reasonable steps to make sure that the Personal Information that we collect, use and disclose is accurate, complete, up to date and relevant. We keep your Personal Information for only as long as it is required in order to provide you with products and services and to comply with our legal obligations. When it is no longer needed for these purposes, we take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify this Personal Information.

INFORMATION USED FOR MARKETING

We collect information from various sources, including external sources, for the purpose of raising funds and developing programs to further progress the aims and objectives of IFYS. We may provide basic information regarding our contacts (name, address, and telephone numbers) to external organisations. However, we provide our contacts with the opportunity to decline or modify any further direct marketing.

HOW WE COMMUNICATE WITH YOU

Where you provide us with an email address, we will send most communications quickly and conveniently to you by email.

You can choose how we communicate with you and manage your consents to receiving information by contacting us through the contact details found at the foot of this Privacy Policy.

HOW YOU MAY ACCESS AND CONTROL YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You can ask whether we are keeping Personal Information about you by contacting us using the contact details found at the foot of this Privacy Policy.

If we have retained information on file, you may request to inspect or receive a copy of it. We will generally provide you with access to your Personal Information, if practicable (although an administration fee may be charged).

You may also request that we make the information correct if you believe it to be incomplete, inaccurate or irrelevant. We will take reasonable steps to amend any Personal Information which is inaccurate or out of date, in accordance with the Right to Information Act 2009 \(Qld\).

In some circumstances, we may not permit access to your Personal Information or may refuse to correct your Personal Information. Where this happens, we will provide you with reasons for this decision, information about alternative approaches to accessing the information, and take any further legally required steps to assist you.

We understand requests to access personal information may be complex. Seeking legal advice before making a request may help clarify your rights.

DO WE DISCLOSE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION OVERSEAS?

IFYS will not usually send or store Personal Information outside of Australia.

Where we do, we take reasonable steps to ensure that your information is given the same type of protection as it is afforded within Australia. This may be through verifying that the overseas organisation upholds principles for the fair handling of personal information that are substantially similar to the QPP and are capable of being upheld through a law, binding scheme or contract.

On occasion, we may also disclose your Personal Information to overseas organisations where you instruct us or expressly consent to us doing so. In such cases, we may not take the above steps in relation to the management of your information.

Listed below are the countries to which we may disclose Personal Information in the course of our functions and activities. This list does not include countries where you may have specifically instructed us to send your information or expressly consented to us sending your information.

- United States of America
- Germany
- India
- United Kingdom

This list is updated from time to time. You can visit our website at any time to view the latest version.

CONCERNS ABOUT THE WAY WE HAVE COLLECTED, USED OR DISCLOSED YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

If you have any concerns or queries about how your Personal Information has been handled, please contact our Corporate Affairs Manager whose contact details are provided below.

If you wish to make a formal complaint about how we have managed your personal information, please provide your complaint in writing to our Corporate Affairs Manager.

Generally, we will contact you to acknowledge receipt of your complaint and let you know who is managing your query within five (5) business days. We will attend to your complaint promptly and seek to resolve the matter. We will aim to respond to your concerns, or otherwise keep you informed of our progress, within thirty (30) days.

If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction, you are entitled under the Privacy Act to make a complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.
